Christmas in Quebec

The holiday of Christmas has been celebrated, and celebrated well, in Quebec ever since it was known as New France. Today, many old traditions live on including the réveillon dinner with the "must" Tourtiere and all the trimmings. Whether you want to recreate this feast in your home or are just interested in learning more about these traditions, this workshop is for you. Dorothy Fletcher will talk about the many customs and demonstrate how to make several dishes including the Buche de Noel (Yule Log). A taste of everything and the recipes will complete this plaisir du soir.

NEW WELLNESS PROGRAMS COMING TO CODRINGTON

Farmers' Market Tour

The Codrington Farmers' Market is Brighton's hot spot for fresh food. Join chef and teacher Dorothy Fletcher as she leads you through the Market. The Codrington Farmers' Market is in its third phenomenal year bringing farmers and their freshest products together in a friendly and fun atmosphere. Take a tour of the Market with a chef who knows the products and the people and learn more about both. Along with meeting some of the vendors, we'll be taking some of the best of that day's market into the hall to demonstrate to you ways of preparing and cooking it to bring out its best. Then you'll have the opportunity to sample everything, including some exclusive products from selected vendors. You'll also receive all the recipes and a market tote bag.
